NC Department of Public Safety Internship Program

Description of Work

Are you interested in safeguarding and preserving the lives and property of the people of North Carolina? If yes, this internship opportunity is for you.

The North Carolina Department of Public Safety's HBCU internship (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) offers students majoring in criminal justice, emergency management, psychology, sociology, or other human service degree programs an opportunity to rotate various careers and operations within the department. Areas of focus include: Alcohol Law Enforcement, Community Corrections, Juvenile Justice, Emergency Management (Homeland Security), State Bureau of Investigation, State Capitol Police and State Highway Patrol.

The HBCU Internship Program period is Monday January 31st, 2022 - Monday, May 1st, 2022
RECRUITMENT RANGE: $15.00/hour.

The work schedule is Monday-Friday 8am-4pm (approximately 25 hours per week).

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities / Competencies

Must meet the following requirements:

- This internship is available to Juniors and Seniors who are currently attending a Historically Black College or University (HBCU).
- Major must be in Criminal Justice, Psychology, Sociology, or Human Services.
- Must have at least a 2.8 GPA or higher.
- Interns must consent to a background check and fingerprinting OR consent to agency onboarding requirements.
- Internships are established in the Raleigh area, with other locations statewide to be determined by applicants.

- Please include the following with this application:
    - Unofficial Transcript
    - Letter from your college advisor
    - Character reference letter

Minimum Education and Experience Requirements

- Major must be in Criminal Justice, Psychology, Sociology, or Human Services.
- Must have at least a 2.8 GPA or higher.

Supplemental and Contact Information

If you have questions, please contact Tameka Judd, Diversity Recruitment and Internship Program Manager with the North Carolina Department of Public Safety (NCDPS).

Tameka.judd@ncdps.gov
Office 919-457-1161 or Cell 919-219-4934